YEARBOOK

Thank you to those who contributed their time, efforts and dedication to create this yearbook. A yearbook is actually a history book of the events that take place each year throughout the school. It includes all students, but highlights the senior class. Special memories and important happenings are all captured within the pages of the book. Yearbooks are looked back on for years to come by many and for many different reasons. The yearbook is important for remembering the history not only of BHS, but also the Town of Bellingham. Again, thank you, especially to Alexis Boiteau, Arianna Lonergan and Rebecca Daigneault for your patience, energy, time and most importantly your dedication in seeing the completion of this book to the end.

Best of luck to the Class of 2024.

May health, happiness and bright futures be awaiting all of you.

CONGRATULATIONS

CLASS HISTORY

The foundation of a class isn't based on building blocks, a classroom, or a stage, but instead our high school class, the class of 2024, as a family. We grow, we change, we adapt, and we evolve into the people we are now, yet our roots are what connect us. The friendships, the memories, the times lived, and the challenges encountered define us as a class. We are a family standing hand in hand, supporting one another to the moment we all stand on that graduation stage and say goodbye to our childhood. It isn't the end of our stories, just the end of our chapter together. We got through this phase of our lives, only by helping each other and standing united, together.

Our transition to high school came sooner than we thought. From middle school to high school, we became part of a new environment, where adults and upperclassmen always felt so much older. Eight grade was scary, full of questions and fears, yet we survived. The D.C. trip was something we were all excited to go to. Having moments with friends outside of school and living a week of adventure and laughter together would have been an exceptional experience, but that's when we underwent a global pandemic, and our school life changed forever. We can't forget when we were all excited about getting two weeks of "doing nothing". But that's when online school started for us, a new chapter of high school. This was something we never expected. The pandemic was something new, and masks became a part of our daily routines. Chromebooks appeared and we continued school in our bedrooms, kitchens, living rooms, or in random hallways of our houses, getting yelled at for eating and using our phones, as we tried to stay motivated to learn. We all remember the closed malls, shops, restaurants, and even the local places that used to bring us all together. It felt weird to say goodbye to a world we once lived in and start a hybrid world, with new ways of living, learning, and enjoying moments. But at the same time, COVID brought us closer to our parents, siblings, and peers. We began to cherish our times together and social media became an even bigger part of our lives.

I think our true high school journey started in the middle of our freshman year when our online classes shifted to in-person and our school life became the "hybrid" COVID journey that we all knew. We were placed into cohorts A and B and took turns coming to school either Monday/Thursday or Tuesday/Friday, and we enjoyed our half-day Wednesdays. Our classes were different and were extended. We had four blocks a day, an hour and a half each, and we enjoyed our "mask breaks" where we would go and walk a lap around the school, begging the teacher for a second, which was never successful. Our online classmates enjoyed the "mask break" even more with the little ten-minute nap. It was a scary but interesting year. We got to see each other again, but our faces were still half-covered. We were still waiting for the D.C. trip we missed, but it wasn't our lucky year, and the trip was still postponed. Unfortunately, MCAS still went off without a hitch. One memorable part of ninth grade and the pandemic was the cafeteria setup, with the individual desks that created a distance between all of us.

The return to tenth grade marked a significant shift – a reemergence, if you will, of a more traditional "high school" experience. This year embodied a return to normalcy, even with minor restrictions. Social distancing remained in the classroom, and masks continued to be a source of minor frustration. Our mask breaks ended; we still tried to convince some teachers to give us a lap around the school realizing mask breaks were truly over. Our old cafeteria setup was brought back with our long blue tables, bringing more life to our school environment. Spirit week embodied our hallways and our school year felt truly enjoyable, except for English and math MCAS; they weren't bad but still brought fears to many of us. Pep rallies were back, and our homecoming dances were too. Pictures together, homecoming king and queen, and grouping at our friends' houses were everything we wanted to make our October 2021 one to remember.

Junior year was a normal year that went smoothly. Worried about college, going to the workforce, or the military, we were all planning our lives, excited and scared to almost reach the end of our high school journey. We were done with MCAS, but now SATs and ACTs took place instead. Our 8 am Saturday mornings, waking up to take hours-long SATs wasn't enjoyable yet we were too ready to leave the testing room. The pandemic was settling down and our masks weren't required anymore. Junior year was our NHS induction and our commitment to physically and emotionally helping our community and proving our places in life. Numerous clubs were founded that year – Red Cross club, chess club, Science Club, Happy Hawks club, and many others – bringing us a way to find our niche and join a group of our interests. Homecoming was part of our junior year journey, but prom was the goal. Thousands of pictures, dancing for hours, and planning outfits months earlier, junior prom was a night to remember. As juniors, we still had more than a month of school left after prom. During this time, we witnessed the 2023 graduating seniors leave, marking the transition of senior territory to us as we began our last year at BHS.

And here comes senior year, our year, our last, yet our beginning. SATs were being rushed, and college apps were finalized. Rec letters were driving our teachers crazy, and our transcript requests were everything we talked about. I doubt any of us tried at school after our college applications were submitted. Senior year was "our" homecoming and "our" prom year; we got to plan and organize them and pep rallies were more than success. Our school brought internship opportunities to many of us, with the chance to leave the building daily and get to have hands-on jobs in the field of our interests. We became captains of our sports teams and made history for our 2024 high school year. Girls Volleyball led by Arianna Elster and Ciara Crayton were TVL champions and State finalists, a first in our school's Volleyball team. Our Cheerleading team run by Madison Elliot has won 8 TVL championships, one regional, and one state championship, and attended nationals 3 times ranking top 5 in each. Our baseball team led by Ryan Nolan, Tyler Ladouceur, and CJ Fama won TVL small, and our football team led by Donovan Turner, Connor Kelly, Sean Dutremble, Mason Jacques, and Ryan Cochrane, were TVL champions, top 8 division 6, and were 7 TVL Allstars including 2 MVPs. Our sports teams made engraved marks that our school will hold forever. We went to Disney over April break and had the times of our lives. Sunny days and roller coasters together are memories we will never forget. Our senior assassin brought our journey to a last, made us cross school territories, and joined us together on random weekday nights, holding water guns and running inside shops. And now, we did it, it's the end of our senior year and the beginning of our new lives. We will all thrive wherever we go and with the hard work that we've already put in throughout our high school lives and through the pandemic, we are the next generation, always hand in hand. To be continued in our next chapter in life…

Valedictorian

Good evening distinguished guests, esteemed faculty, and delighted parents. Most of all, good evening to the class of 2024! My name is Nina Ames, and it is a huge privilege to welcome you all to Bellingham's commencement ceremony as the valedictorian of the class of 2024. Today is a significant milestone, a reflection of years of hard work, perseverance, and dedication, and I am more than honored to speak on behalf of it.

As we gather here today, we must first acknowledge and express our gratitude for those who have supported us along the way. Our achievements today would not have been possible without the invaluable guidance from our select teachers, administrators, coaches, family, and friends.Their unwavering support and encouragement has been the backbone of our success, providing us with the tools and confidence to reach our goals. To that point, I deem it necessary to give a special shoutout to my family. No words can describe how grateful I am to have your love and support. You guys have been my pillars, and I wouldn't trade you all for the world. Can we give a huge round of applause for all the families and friends who have stood by us through thick and thin?

I struggled for a long time to think of something meaningful to say for this speech. It seemed like an impossible task to encapsulate all our experiences and lessons learned in just a few minutes. However, the graduation gods must have seen my struggle, because just when I was at my peak frustration, I got a notification from Google Classroom that my "9th Grade Letter to Yourself" had been graded. Confused, yet eager to see what that was, I opened it. Before me lay an absolute treasure. Freshman year, several students were assigned by our English teacher Mr. Woodward, to write a letter to our future selves that would be opened four years later as we approached graduation. Before I opened it, I thought it would be silly, full of musings like "will I have a boyfriend yet," or "what would I wear to school?"

Yet as I began reading, I quickly realized 9th grade me was more philosophical than senior me gave her credit for. Who knew I'd have such deep thoughts wedged between worrying about my next math test. Early in the letter, I wrote, and I quote, "Over the course of four years I should use my resources to become the best version of myself in my eyes."

What stood out was the phrase "in my eyes." My 9th grade self seemed to understand, it isn't about basing yourself on other people's opinions; you have to be who you want to be for yourself. High school can be filled with challenges and injustices, struggles and insecurities. While I was philosophical, I was also lacking self-confidence and knowledge. I wrote, "I seem to be very dependent on others, especially my parents." Looking back, I know that what lay ahead was years of self-discovery and growth which would increase my abilities, our abilities, leading to greater independence.

Because the reality is, high school is just the beginning. I can proudly say, having watched and advocated for the class of 2024, we have all grown in ways that the freshman versions of ourselves would be proud of. We've all faced unique challenges and overcome personal obstacles, and we've become stronger and more resilient in the process. We've learned to trust ourselves, to value our own judgment, and to strive for personal growth—not in seeking the approval of others, but for our own personal satisfaction.

The letter continued, "If you are reading this, I truly hope that you have grown as an individual, a friend, a sister, a daughter, an athlete, and a student." This sentiment captures the essence of our journey. It reminds us that growth is not just about academic or athletic achievements, but also our overall human development, in all aspects of our lives.

We have all faced challenges and celebrated successes, not only in the classroom but also in our personal relationships and extracurricular activities. The resulting growth has been one huge step in becoming well-rounded individuals who can contribute positively to our communities.

One final quote - and keep in mind I've never quoted myself in my life, so this is funny even to me - "Although many things may delay my progress, I will keep trying until I reach my full potential." And this, I strongly believe, is the most important thing to learn, and what most of us have learned during our time at BHS. No one is immune to difficulties and roadblocks. We have all gone through hard times, but the fact we all made it here today proves you can accomplish anything if you put your mind to it. To quote someone besides me, Booker T Washington once said "Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life, as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed. "Whether it was struggling with a challenging subject, dealing with personal issues, fighting with a friend, losing a loved one or trying to get into school at 7:29 because they changed the bell to be one minute earlier, we persevered. We learned the value of resilience, of picking ourselves up after every fall, and of never giving up on our dreams.

As I wrap up my speech, I want to remind you all that this is just the beginning of our journey. There is still so much to learn, to achieve, and to give. The world is waiting for us to make our mark, to use our skills and talents to leave a lasting impression, and to create our legacy. We have the foundation of knowledge and the spirit of determination that Bellingham has instilled in us. So, as you embark on this new journey and leave high school behind, remember to take with you a sense of pride and purpose. The values we have developed, the friendships we have forged, and the knowledge we have gained will be our guiding lights. You have the power in your hands to change the world.

So, Congratulations, Class of 2024! While our time here may be drawing to a close, the chapters of our lives that lie ahead are still unwritten. Now go out there and make it happen!

-Nina Ames

Salutatorian

Good evening esteemed faculty, distinguished guests, proud families, and fellow graduates. Thank you all for being here tonight. As we gather to celebrate the class of 2024's hard work, dedication, and countless memories, I am honored to stand before you as your salutatorian and class president. I'm so grateful for the privilege of addressing you on this momentous occasion and I'd like to thank a few people for their continuous support. First and foremost, I would like to thank all of the amazing teachers who have guided me over the years. Your dedication and encouragement have played an invaluable role in my growth and success. Thank you for constantly pushing me to do my best and helping me reach this milestone. Additionally, I would like to thank my amazing friends for making high school such an enjoyable experience, always having my back, and giving me memories that I'll cherish forever. Most importantly, I want to thank my incredible parents for their constant love and support over the years. I might be biased, but I'm convinced they're the best parents in the world. Thank you for guiding me, cheering me on, and believing in me. And, thank you for dealing with third-grade Bella who would panic over getting a 98 on a spelling test. I still struggle with spelling "restaurant" and "license" but at least being a stickler about grades seems to have paid off. I wonder how third-grade Bella would feel about me being up here today. I think she'd be proud and I know she'd be pretty confused why I'm not going to Harvard, why I'm not following the career path I outlined in my elementary school yearbook, and why Danny from Karate Kid, who I was convinced would be my future husband, isn't in the audience cheering me on. If there's one thing I've learned in life, it's that not everything goes according to plan. And honestly, that's not always a bad thing. I couldn't be happier that I'm going to Providence College. Being a scientist, author, spy and teacher, as third grade me stated, probably wouldn't fit in my schedule, and unfortunately, Danny isn't looking as young these days. Plans change. Nine years from now, life might be completely different from what you picture, just like life right now is completely different than I imagined it nine years ago in the third grade. I didn't realize that we would rely so much on Chromebooks in school. I had no idea my favorite store at the time would close down. Rest in peace Justice. And I certainly didn't predict that a global pandemic would interrupt our very first year here in eighth grade. Back then we were both nervous and excited coming up to the high school. The seniors seemed so old, the hallways were a maze, and everyone constantly told us, these five years will fly right by. I believed them, but I didn't fully comprehend just how quickly they'd go by. Eighth grade was a blur. We had no idea that a random day in March would be our last time together for a while. Then came the days of COVID bike rides and watching Netflix during zoom english class. Sorry Mr. Woodward, I'm just kidding. When we finally returned to school in person freshman year, not even half of our classmates were physically in school at the same time as us, we couldn't go to our friends sports' games, and we ate lunch six feet apart. Honestly, I think this gave us a new perspective when things finally started to go back to normal sophomore year. We had a new appreciation for football games, school events, and just being together in general. We got to experience our first Homecoming, we made endless memories, and the DC trip, which was postponed three times, was more fun than any of us could've imagined. We pushed through Junior year as classes got tougher and we quickly started to realize how close we already were to the end. Senior year has been filled with both excitement and stress about the future, good times, challenges, and a second epidemic, known as senioritis. This year has also encompassed a multitude of lasts. Our last first day, Our last homecoming. Our last football game. Our last prom. Some of you played your last game of your favorite sport. Some of you performed in your last band or chorus concert. Some of you participated in your last Special Olympics. And today, class of 2024, is our last time all together. All 156 of us on the same field. The people we grew up with. The people we've walked by in the hall for the past 13 years. This is it. Now I know you might not have interacted with every one of your classmates. You might not even know all of their names. Either way, everyone we've crossed paths with has likely had some sort of impact on our lives. Whether that impact was big or small, it set us on track to be who we are today. Right now, we all have one thing in common. All of us are about to close out this chapter of our lives and begin a new one. Some of us are going to a college that's close by. Some of us are going across the country. Some of us are going into a trade. Some of us are entering the workforce. Some of us are going into the military. Though we all have our own plans and are about to go down different paths, we will always be connected by the experiences and memories we shared. However you feel about the journey ahead or the one that's just passed, take a moment of gratitude for the experiences and people that shaped you into who you are today. I appreciate all of you, and I'll miss you. I'll miss it all. I've truly enjoyed my high school experience and I'm happy with how my life is right now. I love my teachers. I love living so close to my friends. I'm comfortable. But, you don't grow when you're comfortable. You need to take that leap of faith and step outside of your comfort zone, because that's where real transformation begins. I've never been good with change, so I often find myself feeling anxious about the future, but as long as I can remember, my mom has reminded me to "live in the moment". If you're constantly thinking about the past, fixating on what you could have done differently, or if you never stop worrying about tomorrow, next week, next year.. you'll miss out on today. So take it all in. This very moment right now, and every single one going forward. Because once a moment passes, you never get to experience it again. Take in the moment you walk this stage and finally receive the diploma you've worked so hard for. Take in the feeling when we toss our caps in a little bit. Take in your last few moments with your friends and family this summer before you leave for college. Your last drive listening to your favorite songs together. Your last trip to your favorite restaurant. Your last hug until break. Make every minute count. They add up. Whatever you choose to do with your minutes, whatever dreams you choose to pursue, and whoever you choose to become, I hope you make your third grade self proud.

Ability is what you're capable of doing...Motivation determines what you do...Attitude determines how well you do it. - Lou Holtz

Josh - We're so proud of all that you have achieved this far and so excited to see where this next chapter of your journey takes you!

Love Mom, Dad & Hayden

Ryan Ginn

We are so proud of the person you have become. Your greatest adventure is about to begin!

Love Mom, Dad, Olivia and Chloe

Dear Lucas,

On your graduation, we love looking back on your journey developing into who you are. You are a wonderful, smart, handsome and charming man who we delight in knowing. We are so happy to get to watch as you continue your path and more memories are made. We will always be here for you.
Love you

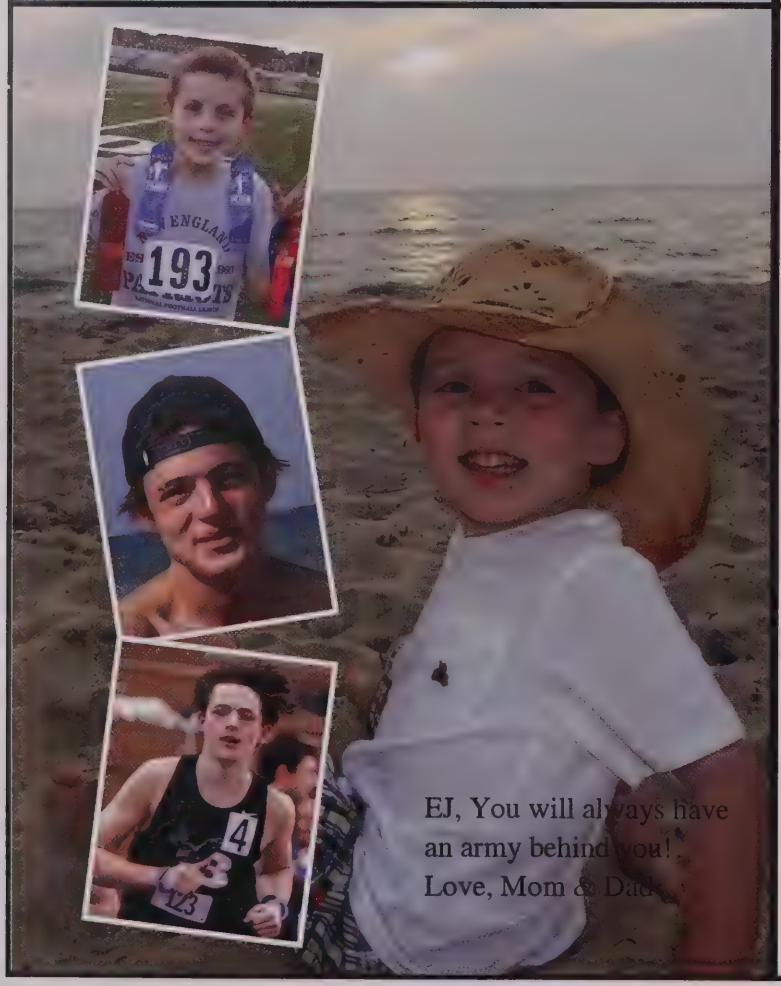
Dad, Mom,
Ben, Addy,
Betty & Stella

Dear Ben,

It has been an absolute privilege and pleasure to watch you grow into the young man you are. We are so proud of you! From your first day of preschool to now, you have shown hard work, kindness, and an unbelievable sense of humor and fun. There are so many great things in store for you and we will be there to support you as you fly!

Love you!

Dad, Mom,
Lucas, Addy,
Betty & Stella



Congratulations Gwen! Class of 2024

May you go forward from strength to strength. May you gain a deeper sense of self and purpose. May you bring joy to all of those blessed to know you. May you hold fast to your dreams.

Always remember that you are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, smarter than you think, and loved more than you'll ever know.

We love you and are so proud of you.
Love Mom, Dad, Johnny and Eric

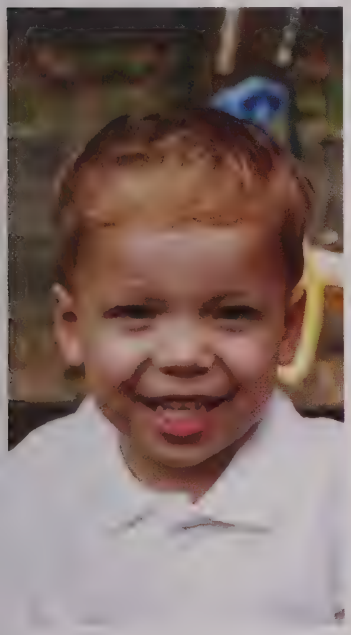
Isabella, our darling daughter. You have always marched to the beat of your own drum, proving you are truly destined for greatness! It wasn't always easy, but you always got it done. We could not be more proud of you & your accomplishments!

Never forget- you are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, smarter than you think & LOVED more than you will ever know. You may be an "adult" now, but to us, you will always be our baby girl. Love- Mom, Dad, Digga & JJ

IZZY- DON'T EVER FORGET YOU ARE BUILT FROM THE SAME CLOTH AS THESE 2 STRONG, COURAGEOUS, BEAUTIFUL SOULS THAT WERE CALLED TO HEAVEN TOO SOON. IF THEY WERE STILL WITH US TODAY, THEY WOULD TELL YOU HOW PROUD YOU

MAKE THEM & REMIND YOU HOW MUCH THEY LOVE YOU. NOT ONLY DO YOU HAVE A BEST FRIEND IN ME, BUT 2 OF THE BEST GUARDIAN ANGELS WATCHING OVER YOU. LOVE YOU MORE & WITH ALL OUR HEARTS. LOVE MOM, NANA & GRAMMY

Michael,
We are so proud of all you have accomplished and can not wait to see what the future holds for you!



Love, Mom and Dad

Ross,

In the blink of an eye, you're all grown up. We are so proud of who you are, of the wonderful gift you are to our family.
Always stay true to yourself and find happiness in life- the great things and the little things.

Congratulations!!!
We love you so much-
Mom, Dad, Gina

Seanie,

When you came into our lives, you were the missing piece that made our family complete! It has been quite the journey, but it's just the beginning...

We will forever be your number one fans and always have your back!

There is no limit to what you can achieve if you pursue your dreams with passion and determination.

Don't ever stop being you!

No matter where the road takes you, always remember to enjoy the ride!

Love always,
Mom, Uncle Joe & Alex

We're so proud of you, Brynn! Good luck at Lasell University!

beyond wildest dreams

Taylor Swift performs her 44-song setlist to a sold-out crowd during her record-breaking Eras Tour, which became the first concert tour in history to gross over $1 billion. The ongoing tour generated over $6.4 billion in economic impact in the U.S. and Canada, turning Swift into a billionaire herself and paving the way for her to break the record for most No. 1 albums by a woman in history. Along with releasing three new albums, premiering a concert film and becoming the first person to ever win four Album of the Year Grammys, Swift shared the wealth by donating to local food banks at each tour stop and providing bonuses totaling over $55 million to her Eras Tour workers. Photo credit: Newscom

SHE'S A MASTERMIND

Taylor Swift announces the Taylor Swift: The Eras Tour concert film, with tickets selling for $19.89 in honor of her 1989 (Taylor's Version) album. The movie notably cut out major distributors as Swift secretly worked with AMC Theatres directly. This meant she negotiated to keep 57% of the movie revenue, money that otherwise would have gone to a distributor, spurring other performers, like Beyoncé, to do the same. Photo credit: Zach Field

A NEW RENAISSANCE

Thirty-two-time Grammy winner Beyoncé performs to one of five sold-out crowds at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in London, England, during her 56-show Renaissance World Tour. The global tour stopped at a number of cities scattered across the U.S. and Europe, grossing a whopping $579 million and boosting the American economy by $4.5 billion. Her first solo headline tour in seven years, Beyoncé's Renaissance spanned almost three hours in length and saw fans of all ages dressed head to toe in dazzling sci-fi disco-themed outfits fit for a queen. Photo credit: Newscom

IT'S A BARBIE WORLD

Actor Margot Robbie stars as Stereotypical Barbie in the Greta Gerwig-directed hit movie Barbie. Moviegoers everywhere painted theaters pink as they flocked to see the film, which raked in over $1.4 billion worldwide and marked a historic milestone as the highest-grossing female-directed film of all time. The movie's soundtrack also broke records, with hits like Dua Lipa's "Dance The Night" and Billie Eilish's "What Was I Made For?" gaining viral popularity through streaming and social media platforms. Photo credit: Newscom

BARBENHEIMER BONANZA

The simultaneous release of Greta Gerwig's Barbie and Christopher Nolan's Oppenheimer on July 21, dubbed "Barbenheimer" by fans, quickly becomes the cultural phenomenon of the summer. The contrasting worlds of the glittery-pink, feel-good musical comedy and the dark, historical biopic took social media by storm and sparked an unexpected alliance between the two films. Deemed as the "great pop culture unifier of the year," the frenzy offered a box office revival as the fourth-strongest opening weekend ever in cinemas. Photo credit: Newscom

100 YEARS OF MAGIC

Disney celebrates its 100th anniversary on Oct. 16. The company, founded in 1923 by Walt Disney, became known for creating classic animated films like Snow White and Cinderella, as well as contemporary fan favorites, including the Frozen franchise. Disney celebrated this anniversary with special events at their theme parks, exclusive merchandise and the release of Once Upon a Studio, an original short film that followed Mickey Mouse as he gathered some of Disney's most legendary characters for a group photo. Photo credit: Newscom

THAT'S MY QUARTERBACK

American football players Marcus Mariota, Patrick Mahomes and Kirk Cousins attend the Hollywood premiere of Netflix's new television documentary series "Quarterback." The show became a hit as it took viewers behind the scenes of what life was like in the NFL for the three pro quarterbacks, with plans for a second season soon announced. Netflix's "Beckham," another sports documentary series that followed soccer icon David Beckham's meteoric rise and career, hit #1 on Netflix charts while garnering 30 million views and 145 million hours of viewing time in just three weeks. Photo credit: Newscom

THE SUMMER'S SPINOFF

Actors Lola Tung, Christopher Briney and Gavin Casalegno star in the hit series "The Summer I Turned Pretty." Season 2, based on Jenny Han's bestselling books, continued Belly Conklin's journey as she navigated her relationships with Conrad and Jeremiah Fisher. Renewed for a third season on Prime Video in August, the show sparked viral TikTok hashtags, with #TeamConrad and #TeamJeremiah amassing over 5.2 billion views as fans picked sides in the love triangle. Photo credits: Newscom

she's got guts

American singer-songwriter Olivia Rodrigo performs on the "Today" show at Rockefeller Center in New York City on Sept. 8 after the release of her second studio album, GUTS. The album's lead single, "Vampire," became Rodrigo's third song to debut atop Billboard's Top 100 chart. Amid her rising success, the three-time Grammy-winning 21-year-old announced her GUTS World Tour, featuring 77 stops (and counting) across North America and Europe over a six-month span. Photo credit: Newscom

EXPANDING THE KINGDOM

Link's adventure continues in The Legend of Zelda: Tears of the Kingdom, the long-awaited sequel to Breath of the Wild and part of the Zelda franchise. Building upon the open-world exploration of the previous game, TOTK expanded from the surface of Hyrule to floating islands in the sky and an underground area known as the Depths. New challenges, abilities and secrets captivated players and helped TOTK win universal praise and numerous nominations and wins from Gamescom, The Golden Joystick Awards and The Game Awards. Photo credit: Zach Field

NETFLIX SUITS UP

After its series finale in 2019, "Suits" makes a comeback on Netflix. A Netflix record-breaker, the nine-season legal drama accrued 3.14 billion viewing minutes, surpassing "Manifest" and ranking eighth among top TV shows. Notable for hosting stars like Meghan Markle, the show witnessed a 27% surge in demand within its first month on the streaming platform. Photo credit: Newscom

THE HUNGER GAMES RETURN

Lionsgate releases the newest installment of The Hunger Games franchise, titled The Hunger Games: The Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes, in theaters on Nov. 17. The haunting origin tale was set 64 years before the events of the first film and followed Snow's rise to power, long before he became the president of the Capitol. The prequel, starring Rachel Zegler as Lucy Gray Baird and Tom Blyth as young Snow, garnered an estimated $44 million at the box office in its opening weekend. Photo credit: Newscom

STRIKING IN SOLIDARITY

Actors Adam Sandler and Ben Stiller walk the picket line of the SAG-AFTRA strike in New York City. The Writers Guild of America (WGA) and the Screen Actors Guild-American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (SAG-AFTRA) both went on strike in the summer over wages, streaming residuals and job security related to AI. Both groups reached agreements with the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers (AMPTP) in the fall and called off the strike. Photo credit: Newscom

driving change

President Joe Biden becomes the first sitting president to join a picket line as he speaks to union workers from three major car companies leading a historic strike under Union Auto Workers President Shawn Fain on Sept. 15. The strike began when dissatisfaction with stagnant wages and rising profits led the workforce to unite and cease operations. Striking came to an end on Oct. 30, as Ford, Stellantis and General Motors tentatively agreed to deals in line with UAW demands.

MCCARTHY OUSTED, JOHNSON SWORN IN

Congress successfully elects Rep. Mike Johnson as Speaker of the House following the failed attempts of three other Republican nominees. On Oct. 3, former House Speaker Kevin McCarthy was voted out of his position as a result of a motion filed by Rep. Matt Gaetz, leaving the House unable to conduct business for three weeks. This was the first time in American history a House speaker was removed from office before the end of their term.

UNDER PRESSURE

A recent study reveals that New York City, home to 421 skyscrapers, is sinking under the weight of its own buildings. Researchers from the U.S. Geological Survey and the University of Rhode Island studying sea-level rise in coastal cities found that the collective weight of the city's 1,084,954 buildings – amounting to a staggering 1.68 trillion pounds — was causing NYC to gradually sink by up to 2 millimeters per year. This, compounded with melting ice sheets linked to rising sea levels, posed a heightened flood risk to the Big Apple.

WOMEN OF LEGACY

The nation pays its final respects to former First Lady Rosalynn Carter, retired U.S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Sandra Day O'Connor and sitting U.S. Senator Dianne Feinstein, all of whom died in 2023. Carter was known for her advocacy of mental health during a time when it was not widely discussed, while O'Connor was the first woman appointed to the U.S. Supreme Court. At the age of 90, Feinstein was the oldest sitting senator and longest-serving female senator in U.S. history, but had recently faced calls to step down amid health concerns. Photo credits: Newscom

it's a love story

Fans hold giant cutouts of Taylor Swift and Travis Kelce during a game between the Philadelphia Eagles and Kansas City Chiefs on Nov. 20. The pair started dating after Kelce admitted to trying to give Swift his phone number via friendship bracelet at her Eras Tour stop in Kansas City, and the singer attended several Chiefs games throughout the season. Kelce's jersey sales skyrocketed by 400%, and Chiefs viewership soared amid their romance.

SUPREME ADMISSIONS

The Supreme Court rules 6-3 to end affirmative action in college admissions, reversing 45 years of legal precedent. The ruling prohibited colleges and universities from factoring race into admissions. Many institutions faced increased pressure after the announcement to end legacy admission practices, which some said restricted diversity efforts and provided an unfair advantage to students whose parents had attended. Photo credit: Newscom

JUSTICE FOR JUSTICES

On Nov. 13, the Supreme Court adopts an ethical code of conduct for justices for the first time in its history. The court faced pressure to increase accountability amid controversies related to justices receiving undisclosed personal gifts from wealthy donors. Critics of the new ethics code described it as ineffectual and felt it failed to provide serious consequences for violations. Photo credit: Newscom

GENEROSITY IN BILLIONS

Billionaire philanthropist MacKenzie Scott donates more than $2 billion to over 300 organizations, following her pledge to donate the majority of her wealth. Since her 2019 divorce from Amazon founder Jeff Bezos, Scott had given more than $16.5 billion to 1,900 nonprofit organizations. While her philanthropy faced both praise and criticism, a report indicated slightly over half of surveyed nonprofits found her grants eased fundraising, with 88% considering it their largest unrestricted grant. Photo credit: Newscom

AN OGRE AND HIS SWAMP

In October, guests stay the night in Shrek's Swamp. The themed Airbnb in the Scottish Highlands opened to the public for just three nights over Halloween weekend. The experience was completely free of charge for those chosen, and guests were treated to parfaits, waffles in the morning and full access to Shrek's signature outhouse. Photo credit: Newscom

A MCBLAST FROM THE MCPAST

McDonald's much-anticipated restaurant spinoff, CosMc's, opens its first drive-thru in Bolingbrook, Illinois, on Dec. 7, ahead of the tentative 2024 debut. The limited chain, themed around the '80s and '90s alien character CosMc, aimed to capitalize on nostalgia. McDonald's planned to unveil approximately 10 pilot CosMc's locations by the end of 2024, initially targeting the Dallas-Fort Worth and San Antonio metro areas. Photo credit: Newscom

SHO-TIME!

Japanese baseball star Shohei Ohtani laughs after an MLB game between the Los Angeles Angels and the Atlanta Braves on July 31. A free agent once the season was over, Ohtani had plenty of reason to celebrate after he signed a 10-year, $700 million contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers. It was the largest contract in pro sports history for the two-way All-Star player who both hits and pitches. Photo credit: Newscom

call it a dynasty

Kansas City Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes shows off the Lombardi Trophy after leading his team to a 25-22 overtime victory over the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LVIII on Feb. 11 in Las Vegas. After a halftime performance by Usher, the game came to a dramatic end when Mahomes threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to receiver Mecole Hardman to clinch the win. For Mahomes and the Chiefs, it was their second-straight Super Bowl title and third in five years. Photo credits: Newscom

A MAGICAL MATCH-UP

Inter Miami CF owners Jorge Mas, Jose Mas and David Beckham introduce Argentine soccer star Lionel Messi as the club's newest signing to a sold-out crowd at DRV PNK Stadium. The eight-time Ballon d'Or winner and FIFA World Cup champion signed a multiyear contract in July that will earn him upwards of $60 million per year from his salary, signing bonus and team equity. The acquisition became the biggest signing in MLS history since Beckham's arrival at LA Galaxy back in 2007. Photo credit: Newscom

HAIL TO THE WOLVERINES

Michigan quarterback J.J. McCarthy hands the ball off to running back Donovan Edwards during the first quarter of the College Football National Championship Game on Jan. 8 in Houston. Edwards scored a 41-yard touchdown on the play, which got the Wolverines off and running to a 34-13 victory over the Washington Huskies. Michigan finished the season 15-0 and claimed its first football national title in 27 years.

Swirling colors dance across the Alaskan night sky on Sept. 5. The rare celestial sight, usually reserved for higher latitudes, was seen all around the world for several nights this fall and winter thanks to a strong geomagnetic storm. Scientists predicted these shows to be the brightest in 20 years, with parts of the northern lights even reaching into Oklahoma. Photo credit: Newscom

ON THE BRINK OF ERUPTION

Following an initial eruption on Dec. 18, the Icelandic Meteorological Office warns of heightened volcanic activity as magma accumulates beneath the Earth's surface in Grindavik, Iceland. Situated atop tectonic plates, the town was rattled by thousands of earthquakes over the course of a few weeks, triggering a Civil Protection Service Level of Emergency to evacuate citizens. While the initial eruption released pressure, scientists noted rising land as magma continued to pool underneath the Svartsengi geothermal power plant. Photo credit: Newscom

the future of medicine

Scientists and doctors around the world research ribonucleic acid (RNA) therapies to treat a variety of viruses, diseases and other health issues. RNA medicines gained huge momentum in 2021 with the successful development of the COVID-19 vaccine, a messenger RNA (mRNA) treatment. Researchers continued to find new uses for this highly-targeted form of treatment and predicted its potential for immunotherapy, anti-viral treatments and tissue regeneration.

CLASH OF THE GIANTS

Threads makes its debut in early July shortly before its direct competitor Twitter officially rebrands to X. Launched by Meta, which also owns Instagram and Facebook, the brand-new social media platform was designed for sharing short text updates and joining public conversations. Meanwhile, X introduced a subscription model, which included features like removing ads, longer posts and the coveted blue checkmark. Photo credit: Newscom

BREAKING FREE

After being anchored to the ocean floor for three decades, the largest iceberg in the world breaks free of Antarctica and makes its way toward the open ocean. Scientists reported the iceberg, scientifically known as A-23a and weighing close to a trillion tons, was traveling northward at approximately 30 miles per day, propelled by strong wind and ocean currents. The mass was roughly three times the size of New York City and ranked among the world's oldest icebergs.

SUPER HEAVY TEST

A SpaceX Falcon 9 rocket launches from the pad at Cape Canaveral, Florida, on Nov. 12. SpaceX continued to push boundaries with its vehicle testing. The SpaceX super heavy Starship, the largest vehicle ever to have flown into space, made it into orbit on an unmanned test flight but was unable to make it through a planned 90-minute test. Photo credit: Newscom

OPEN FOR BUSINESS

TikTok launches its e-commerce platform, TikTok Shop, in the U.S., seeking to turn its cultural influence into sales. Available to 40% of the app's users, the Shop tab reached all 150 million U.S. users by October, and over 200,000 sellers and 100,000 content creators applied for the program. TikTok Shop's launch came amidst U.S. government negotiations and criticisms, with the platform assuring users of a secure checkout process and Oracle-managed U.S. user data storage.

EUROPE'S SCORCHING SUMMER

People cool off in the shade in Geneva, Switzerland, as Europe grapples with unprecedented heat waves and wildfires. The World Meteorological Organization confirmed that the month began with record-breaking temperatures. High-pressure anticyclones named Cerberus and Charon intensified the heat over southern Europe, with temperatures surpassing 45 degrees Celsius in parts of Greece, Spain and Italy. Photo credit: Newscom

IN THE EYE OF THE STORM

Residents of St. Petersburg, Florida, assess the devastating impact of Hurricane Idalia, which makes landfall as a Category 3 storm in late August. Winds exceeding 125 miles per hour and 16-foot storm surges caused widespread power outages, intense flooding and structural damage to homes and businesses. Evacuation orders were sent to 23 counties for the worst storm to hit Florida in more than a century. Photo credit: City of St. Petersburg

AI ENTERS THE CHAT

ChatGPT, a large language model developed by OpenAI, has seamlessly integrated into both the workforce and classrooms, showcasing its intuitive features and capabilities. This model adeptly mimicked the human language and was trained on a diverse range of online text, enabling it to perform functions such as answering questions, translating languages, generating text, assisting in coding and more. Students and professionals alike rapidly began adopting ChatGPT, while world leaders rushed to address the potential risks of this rapidly evolving technology. Photo credit: Sanket Mishra/Pexels

FORTNITE FRENZY

Fortnite releases Chapter 4, Season 5, dubbed "OG" by Epic Games, on Nov. 3 and records 44.7 million players on the following Sunday, more than any other day in the game's history. Released by Epic Games in 2017, the game gained immense popularity due to its free-to-play model, accessibility across various platforms (including PCs, consoles and mobile devices) and its unique building mechanics. This blast from the past ignited a nostalgic spark in its players as they explored the original Chapter 1 map and enjoyed access to retired items from past seasons. Photo credit: Newscom

devastation in maui

President Joe Biden examines a burnt-out car as he and First Lady Jill Biden tour the damage from Maui's deadly wildfires with Hawaii Governor Josh Green and his wife, Jaime Kanani Green, on Aug. 21 in Lahaina, Maui. In early August, a series of wildfires broke out across Hawaii, initially sparked by downed power lines and later reignited by windy conditions. The wind-whipped fire, which became the deadliest in the U.S. in more than a century, prompted emergency evacuations and caused widespread damage, claiming 115 lives in the town of Lahaina on Maui's northwest coast. Photo credit: Adam Schultz/The White House

HEALTHIER TOMORROW

California bans the use of four food additives, including red dye No. 3, which is used in certain medications and thousands of candies, like Skittles. Previous studies linked red dye No. 3 to hyperactivity, behavioral issues and cancer. Lawmakers scheduled the California Food Safety Act, referred to by some as the "Skittles ban," to go into effect by 2027. Photo credit: Newscom
